The Spanish El Taller de Zenón asked for stamp sheets. A number of mailartists make stamps (like I also did with self portraits and a nature-theme). The other time I just cut them into separate stamps before adding them to sendings. El Taller preferred the sheet: a sheet can be more than just the sum of its elements. You also see this with official stamp sheets.

After I made some eraser cuttings, I wanted to make a cutting as well for this project. But because of the size it could not be an eraser. So I went back to linoleum cutting. In an A5-size piece I drew and cut 12 stamps mainly with isolated body parts and some with bodies in relation to each other. This because of the free but demanded theme of eroticism.

Because I do not have a press it is difficult to get a nice print from the lino-cut. But after some jumping on top of it, taking care not to move the linoleum on the paper sheet I got some nice ones. I used some colour pencils for the accents and punched the holes into the sheet manually (some artists have special machines for this I suppose).

It's on the road.

EROTICISM

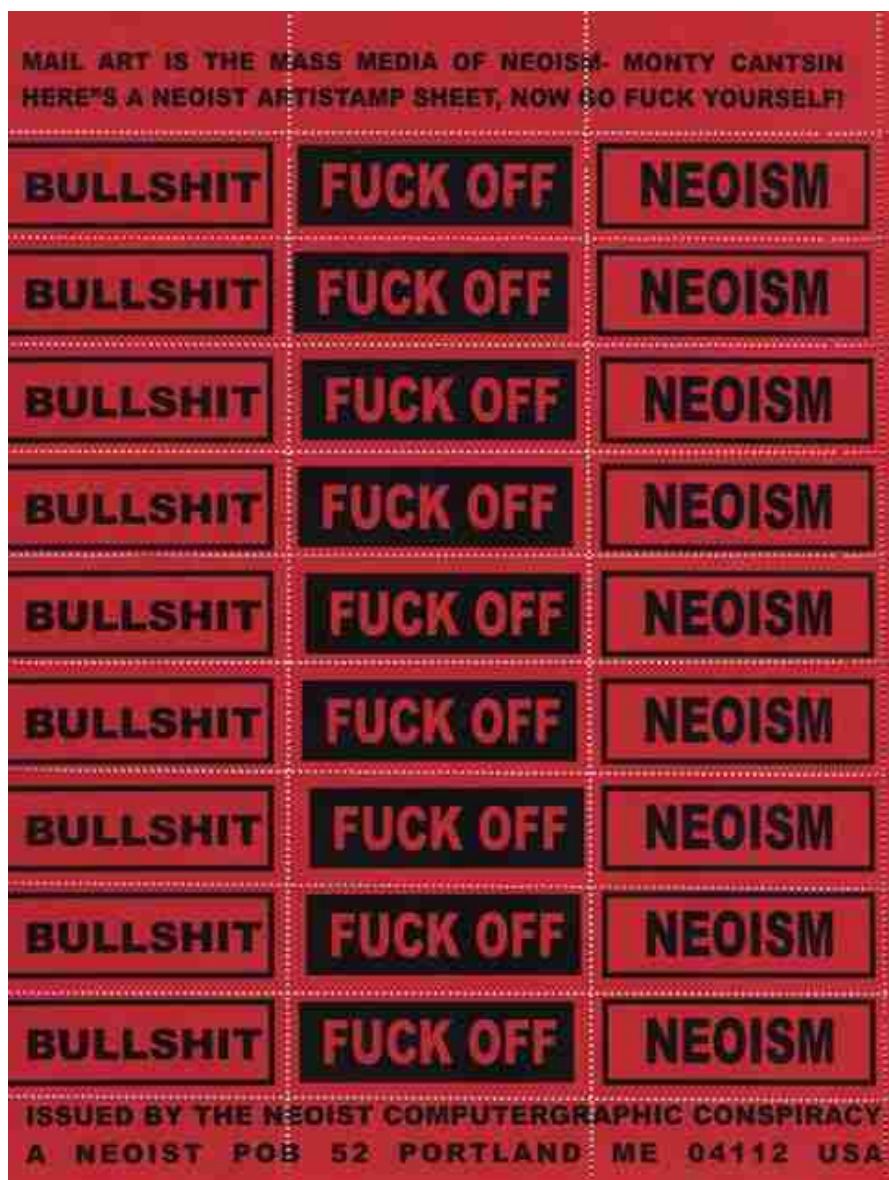

The five human senses and their different levels of perception have two main tasks. First, they help people to orient in their environment ensuring their survival. Second, they serve their own sensing lust that is their striving to feel, perceive and to experience their own senses in a pleasant intensive way. Here the senses only have the duty to give, to deepen, to enrich and to heighten the lust thus regaining the lost paradise. In this process the very sense will dominate that according to the disposition of the individual person is most accentuated. In the course of time people bring the increase of their sensing lust to ever new heights. Above all this happens in the field of sexuality by the invention of eroticism and much more subordinating in different ways the entire range of the senses only to sexual enjoyment. Here one can observe that any increase in the sensing of lust being accompanied by strong senses stimuli is banished, sometimes even sanctioned with a penalty. For in mysterious human life both belong together: the desire of the people to reveal as well as to exercise lust and their efforts to veil as well as to suppress it.

AESTHETICS IS THE THEORY OF THE VALUING EXPERIENCE RELATED SENSORY PERCEPTIONS.

Vibration and...

Barnish and wimen and above these all are vibrating in space; the surface is distorted by lost images from the past, or play analogies from the present. Thus the vibrations in present space, and the reverberations of image-laden time, meet in pulsating encounter... Time and space are retained in an instant; here and now make one flesh.
